

Junction Awards

2004 Recruiter of the Year

Performance by 1st Projects.

Our MC, Al Progdgers.

Recruiter of the year, DAV.

Loyalty award goes to The Career Consortium.

CareerJunction announced the winners of the first ever Career Seekers Choice Recruiter of the Year Award at a cocktail function in Johannesburg on 18 August 2004.

The Junction awards was hosted at the Venue in Rivonia, Johannesburg, was MCed by Al Progdgers, a well-known comic entertainer with international experience. Entertainment was provided by Latin, rock, dance, industrial percussion act, 1st Project.

The annual Junction Awards have been established to honour, recognise and promote true best practices in recruitment. DAV Professional Placement Group, placed first out of over 200 nominations, exemplifies the qualities of a top-rate recruitment agency and, clearly, Career Seekers have benefited from the company's expertise and service. Quest Flexible Staffing Solutions was placed second and Kelly third in this first ever Junction Awards.

CareerSeeker Hans Belz from Johannesburg walked away with the attractive and must-have gizmo on the market today, the Apple iPod MP3 Player, for his nomination for Recruiter of the Year 2004.

A further award, 'The CareerJunction Loyalty Award 2004', was announced. This went to The Career Consortium who started service with CareerJunction in March 1999 and have continued with the online recruitment company since.

The evening was both fun and exciting and will certainly be repeated next year. So look forward to Junction Awards 2005.
